

VZCZCXYZ0000
RR RUEHWEB

DE RUEHAM #0272 0281430
ZNR UUUUU ZZH
R 281430Z JAN 10
FM AMEMBASSY AMMAN
TO RUEHC/SECSTATE WASHDC 6794
INFO RUEHAD/AMEMBASSY ABU DHABI 0018
RUEHRB/AMEMBASSY RABAT 0450
RUEHRH/AMEMBASSY RIYADH 2277
RUEHTV/AMEMBASSY TEL AVIV 2018
RUEHTC/AMEMBASSY THE HAGUE 0381
RUEHUNV/USMISSION UNVIE VIENNA 0069
RHEHNSC/NSC WASHDC 0432
RUCNDT/USMISSION USUN NEW YORK 0104

UNCLAS AMMAN 000272

SIPDIS

FOR ISN/TR AND NEA/ELA

E.O. 12958: N/A

TAGS: PARM PREL PGOV AORC NPT JO

SUBJECT: PREPARING FOR THE NUCLEAR SECURITY SUMMIT: JORDAN
CLEAR ON DIFFERENCES BETWEEN THE SUMMIT AND NPT REVCON

REF: STATE 5891

PolChief shared reftel points on January 25 with Samer Naber, Ministry of Foreign Affairs Director of the North America Unit, who offered no substantive comment and promised to share the nonpaper with his colleagues. EconCons engaged Mohammad Tarawaneh, Ministry of Foreign Affairs Deputy Director for International Relations and Organizations, during a January 28 joint demarche with the Dutch DCM on the upcoming third Sherpa meeting in preparation for the Nuclear Security Summit(septel). Tarawaneh commended the U.S. approach on the two issues and asserted the GOJ recognized the special nature of the Summit and how it differs from the regular NPT Review Conference. He added that Jordan would be an active participant at both events.
Beecroft